At the bottom of South America, the southernmost Andes rise in jagged spires to the sky, their sheer granite walls drawing the eye and spirit upward. Glaciers wind down in frozen rivers from the ice-crowned massifs, choking lakes and fjords with floating blue bergs. Sunrise bathes the peaks in rosy alpenglow. Patagonia has no peer on Earth when it comes to dramatic landscapes. Yet despite the daunting environs, an array of unique wildlife thrives here, from pumas to guanacos to condors on land, while whales and penguins feed in the icy seas. Explore every facet of this legendary land of rock, ice and pampas on our all-encompassing journey to the remote southern reaches of Chile and Argentina.

- » Experience the gaucho lifestyle in the shadow of knife-edged peaks and sapphire lakes on a comprehensive itinerary spanning both Chile and Argentina
- » Visit the world's largest ice field, cruise to the face of massive glaciers and take a guided walk atop the ice, with a chance to peer safely into cracks and crevasses
- » Stay at renowned EcoCamp Patagonia, enjoying wilderness solitude in view of the granite spires of Chile's famed Torres del Paine

“Torres del Paine was definitely the highlight of the trip. It’s such an amazing park, as is the EcoCamp there. But the single biggest element that made the trip is our guide Zapa. Can’t wait to do another tour with him!” D. Mortenson

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS

Moderate

This trip offers an immersion in the spectacular scenery and terrain of the Southern Andes, which is most fully enjoyed on foot. Though most of the required hiking activities are moderate in terms of exertion level, the days are packed with activity and participants should have a high energy level to get the most out of this itinerary. At minimum, guests must have the ability to walk at least three miles over hilly, uneven terrain that includes long steps and occasionally traversing ice, snow and rocks. Typical walks are 3-5 miles in length, though longer and/or more strenuous options are sometimes offered in order to access areas of exceptional scenic beauty. Elevations are generally between 500 and 2,000 feet above sea level.

SPACE ALLOCATION

NHA can reserve approximately 12 spaces in 6 rooms for your promotion. To guarantee exclusivity for this departure, you must have a minimum group size of 10 full-paying travelers. If your group requires more space, we will do our best to accommodate you.

STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES

Please submit all tour reservations and deposits to NHA. Upon receipt of deposit, NHA will mail each traveler a confirmation letter and preliminary documents. Approximately three months prior to departure, NHA will mail each traveler a pre-departure briefing package that will include information on the area and the wildlife, a packing list, clothing suggestions and photography hints.
